A NEW LAWYER-BRIBE STORY.

JEROME'S DETECTIVE ACCUSES PATRICK'S COUNSEL NOW.

Kohler Charged Before Bar Association With Offering $7,000 for False Affidavits-He Says Charge is Abso-jutely Faise-Flower's Lawyer Indicted

Assistant District Attorney Rand an-nounced yesterday that he had preferred charges before the Bar Association against Lawyer Edgar J. Kohler, of counsel for Lawyer Albert T. Patrick, for offering to bribe Detective Sergeant Nicholas T. Brindley to make false affidavits favorable to Patrick, who murdered William M. Rice n September, 1901.

"A woman go-between met Brindley last December," said Mr. Rand, "and told him that Mr. Kohler would like to meet him to talk over Patrick's case. Brindley reported this to Assistant District Attorney Garvan and to Mr. Jerome. Mr. Jerom told him to go ahead and see what would develop. Brindley met the woman and Kohler in an uptown restaurant. Subsequently Brindley met Kohler alone at the Bar Association. The District Attorney had agents who saw all the meetings and who overheard some of the conversations. Brindley finally reported that Kohler wanted Patrick and had asked Brindley how much money he wanted as payment. Brindley said $7,000 and Kohler, he says, was willing to pay it. He also offered a place on his payroll to Brindley if Brindley would keep him informed of any move the District Attorney contemplated in the Patrick case. No money was ever actually paid. The District Attorney called Brindley off in January while negotiations were pend-

Mr. Rand refused to give the name of

Mr. Rand refused to give the name of the woman go-between. She was a reporter employed on the trial of Patrick and became one of his partisans. She also met Mrs. Patrick, who was Mrs. Addie M. Francis at the time of Patrick's arrest and married Patrick in the Tombs. The woman reporter did detective work in Patrick's behalf, it is said, in connection with his motion for a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence.

This motion was made by Lawyer John C. Tomlinson, who was associated with Lawyers Francis J. Wellman and Kohler. They were said to have been retained by Patrick's wealthy brother-in-law, John T. Milliken. Mr. Rand said that the other lawyers were not concerned in the charges against Mr. Kohler.

Brindley, who also is the accuser of Dr. Flower's lawyer, Mills, held on a charge of bribery, has been doing detective work for Assistant District Attorney Garvan for nearly three years. Mr. Garvan was one of Patrick's prosecutors. Brindley had charge of Valet Charles F. Jones, the self-confessed murderer of Rice at Patrick's instigation. For a long time Jones, who was the principal witness against Patrick, was kept under Brindley's custody in Mrs. Dickinson's private sanitarium at 200 West Forty-fourth street instead of in the House of Detention. Brindley told Mr. Jerome that Mr. Kohler wanted him to swear that Jones had exceptional privileges and a promise of immunity from prosecution in return for his testimony against Patrick.

Lawyer Kohler gave out this statement last evening:

My attention has been called to statement in the afternoon appears to the affective work of the first part of the statement in the affective more of the statement in the affective more of the statement in the affective or nevers to the affective to the affective to the affective the aff

Lawyer Kohler gave out this statement last evening:

My attention has been called to statements in the afternoon papers to the effect that District Attorney Jerome had preferred before the grievance committee of the Bar Association charges against me of having attempted to bribe a detective named Brindley in connection with the Patrick case. It is true that such charges have been made. It is also true that they are absolutely false. I have sought a hearing before the committee at the earliest date practicable. Infortunately the date originally fixed for the hearing was April 6, when I had to be in the Court of Appeals. I requested an earlier date but the committee could not take the matter up before April 20 when the charges will be heard and when they will be shown to be unqualifiedly untrue.

Mr. Tomlinson added this statement:

Mr. Tomlinson added this statement:

The charges against Mr. Kohler are to my knowledge absolutely false. I believe Mr. Jerome has been grossly deceived and that when he learns the truth he will be the first to correct his mistake. The intimation in some of the reports that Mr. Kohler's connection with the Patrick case has been exceed is antickly unfounded. connection with the Patrick case has been severed is entirely unfounded. I knew charges had been preferred against Mr. Kohler by Mr. Jerome before the grievance committee of the Bar Association some weeks since, that Mr. Kohler had denied those charges and had, through Mr. Wallace Macfarlane, ex-United States District Attorney, asked for an immediate hearing. A hearing was fixed for April 6, but adjourned because of Mr. Kohler's engagements in the Court of Appeals.

ney, asked for an immediate hearing. A hearing was fixed for April 6, but adjourned because of Mr. Kohler's engagements in the Court of Appeals.

It is most unfortunate that a charge of this character, which has been denied while pending unheard before a committee of the Bar Association, should be made the subject of discussion in the public press. Mr. Kohler is a young gentleman of the highest reputation at the bar and I am at a loss to understand the motive that suggested the publication of these charges until their final disposition by the tribunal before whom they were pending. My appreciation of Mr. Kohler's ability and integrity is so high that not only will his services in the Patrick case be continued, but I have had since the making of these charges and knowing they were pending, occasion to avail myself of his services in other matters.

I have not the slightest doubt that when the facts are made known to the committee of the Bar Association, Mr. Kohler will be promptly vindicated.

JOHN G. TOMLINSON.

Mr. Jerome is still out of town.

Mr. Jerome is still out of town.

LAWYER MILLS INDICTED IN FLOWER CASE. LAWYER MILLS INDICTED IN FLOWER CASE. Lawyer George E. Mills was indicted yesterday for bribery and is to be arraigned this morning before Judge McMahon in the General Sessions. The complainant is Detective Sergeant Brindley, who says that Mills gave him $1,750 last Friday for the five original indictments against Dr. R. C. Flower for grand larceny. Mills is a member of the law firm of Mills & Flower, his partner being Dr. Flower's son. The indictment will end the police court proceedings.

FOR CONSUMPTION TRY MILK, Lots of It, Taken Hot, With Olive Oil Thrown

In-Doctor Writes Mayor About It. Dr. Robert Taylor, writing from the Lincoln Hotel in Broadway, has suggested to the Mayor in an open letter the calling of a national congress here to discuss the causes and treatment of consumption. Incidentally Dr. Taylor asserts that the only rational treatment for tuberculosis is how to keep up assimilation of food, "and lots of it." "Milk, milk and more milk and a little clive oil" is the way Dr. Taylor answers the question.

wers the question.

The patient, he asserts, should take not less than a gallon of milk a day, taken at least luke warm and divided into six feedings. The olive oil should be taken in twoings. The olive oil should be taken in two-cunce doses, morning and evening. This process, he writes, will lead to ultimate re-covery, because it will build up the sys-tem faster than the bacilli can waste it.

TRIED TO KILL SICK SISTER.

Young McGurrin Shot Her-Also Shot His

Aunt-Then Killed Himself. HOLYOKE, Mass., April 8 .- Peter McGurrin, aged 21, who was employed in the city rin, aged 21, who was employed in the city post office as a clerk, shot his sixteen-year-old sister, Mary, and his aunt, Miss Sarah Cassidy, and then committed suicide last evening by cutting his throat with a razor at his home, 21 Cabot street. The tragedy was the result of the young man's brooding over the incurable illness of his sister.

Dr. Comters found the girl wounded over the eye. The aunt, he found, had a bullet graze on the side of the head near the temple and a bullet wound in the cheek.

The girl will live only a short time. Miss Cassidy will recover.

Abattoir and Fee Simple Bills Recalled. The Abattoir bill and the bills to permit the city to give absolute title instead of leasehold to the realty held by the Or-phans Home and the House of Mercy have been recalled to Albany and are no longer before the Mayor for consideration.

MAYOR MODIFIES R. T. BILL. For Sham's Sake Abandons Private Letting

In deference to the criticisms which have been made on his bill empower-ing the Rapid Transit Commissioners to award the contracts for the projected subway extension without public letting, Mayor Low has sent to Albany instructions to have the measure modified in several particulars. The Mayor says to have the measure modified in several particulars. The Mayor says

Practiculary, the intention and, I suppose, actually, the effect of the clause apparently allowing the Rapid Transit Commissioners to make a contract for any piece of road without public letting is to enable the commission to deal with the contractor for the subway precisely as it did recently with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. This, certainly, is what it was intended to do.

The motive for it was the fact that a public letting where there is only one possible competitor is a good deal of a sham.

On the other hand, in view of the general misunderstanding that this clause has caused. I have given instructions to have it stricken from the bill.

I have taken the same course as to the clause permitting the Rapid Transit Commission to make a lease with the contractor for the present subway for a longer term than fitty years. This clause was intended to apply only to branches or extensions of the Dresent subway: but, as drawn, it evidently needs amendment, and the simblest way of dealing with it seems to me to laive it out sit gether.

Incidentally, I may say that I have taken advantage of the careful review of the pending bill, resulting from the criticisms which have been called to my attention, to reduce the minimum term of any lease that can be made from thirty-five years, as it has herotofore been, to twenty-five, thus assimilating the Rapid Transit law to the provisions of the Charter and of Section 32 of the Rapid Transit act itself, which relates to extensions built by private corporations. Provision for a periodic revision of the terms of every franchise hereafter let, after the first period of twenty-five years has expired, has also been made.

I think I am right in saying that all the members of the Rapid Transit Board favor this measure. The changes alluded to in this statement have been specifically concurred in by Mr. Orr and the Comptroller.

The bill represents, in some particulars, a compromise between opposing opinons; but t

VANDERBILT WEDDING PLANS.

Final Preparations for Next Tuesday' Ceremony-Less Than 180 Guests.

NEWPORT, April 8 .- Mrs. Frederic Neilson and daughter will arrive at Newport to-morrow and will enter on the occupancy of Arleigh, where Miss Neilson's riage to Reginald Vanderbilt is to take place on Tuesday next. Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt and her daughter, Miss Gladys Breakers' and on that day Reginald Vanderbilt will leave his quarters at Oakland Farm and will come to The Breakers, where he will remain until the wedding. Mrs. Vanderbilt has cards out for large where he will remain until the wedding. Mrs. Vanderbilt has cards out for large dinner at The Breakers for both Saturday and Monday nights and Mrs. Neilson will also entertain.

Preparations for the wedding are already under way. The florists will arrive on Saturday; with them three carloads of material for decorative purposes, the principal feature of which will be Easter lilies. The nuptial knot will be tied by a Catholic priest, and it is likely that the Rev. Louis J. Deady of St. Joseph's Church will be the officiating elergyman.

Every fashionable boarding house in Newport has been engaged by Mrs. Neilson for the 5 commodation of her guests, and included in these are the three Muenchinger cottages, the Robinson and the La Farge cottages. Besides these, many of the guests will be entertained by Mrs. Vanderbilt, Alfred G. Vanderbilt and Mrs. Neilson at their homes.

Arrangements have been made with one of the local banks for a large safe deposit vault, where the gifts of Miss Neilson will be stored before and after the wedding. It is now understood that the guests to the wedding will be less than one hundred and fifty.

Immediately after the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt will take up their residence at Sandy Point Farm, where a suite of rooms is being prepared for them. They will remain at the farm until late next week when they will go to Boston to attend the Boston Horse Show, where Mr. Vanderbilt will exhibit three of his horses, Musette, Iris and White Oak Maid. In May they will make a tour in Europe in a touring car, after which they will make a coaching trip through England and Scotland, returning to this country in August.

POPE HAS CHOSEN MGR. MOONEY That Is the News Received by Priests Here About the Buffalo Sec.

Private communications from Rome re ceived by several prominent New York priests yesterday conveyed the information that the Pope has chosen Mgr. Mooney, Vicar-General of this diocese, for the bishopric of Buffalo, and that the Holy Father will insist upon the Vicar-Genera accepting the appointment unless the plea of ill health be advanced and insisted upon.

It was asserted last night by one of the priests closely associated with Mgr. Mooney in his work here, that the Vicar-General's letter to the Vatican, asking that his name be erased from the list of eligibles for ap-be erased from the list of eligibles for appointment to Buffalo, had crossed the communication from the Holy See.

"Mgr. Mooney is not well and has not been for a long time," said this priest. "The severe attack of grip he suffered several months ago has left him far from strong. However, if the Holy Father insists, he will, of course, accept the elevation, although his greatest desire is to continue his parish work in New York."

It is asserted by persons in authority in the Church that if Mgr. Mooney accepts the elevation to the bishopric, the New York province will undoubtedly be divided, but that should Rome accede to his wish and permit him to remain here, the province will be left intact, at least for another year, and Father Biden, rector of the Cathedral at Buffalo, will be promoted to the bishopric. Mgr. Mooney will not return to New York from Hot Springs, Va., until Saturday, and then only to attend the Easter celebrations at his church.

VICTORY BATEMAN SUED. Actor Mestayer Falls to Make Out a Case in His Action for Divorce. After the witnesses for the plaintiff had peen heard yesterday before Justice Fitzgerald in the Supreme Court in the divorce suit of Harry Mestayer, an actor, against his wife, who is known as Victory Bate-man, George Robinson, Mestayer's lawyer, man, George Robinson, Mestayer's lawyer, obtained permission to have the case put on the calendar for a retrial on the plea that the evidence was not as strong as he had expected. Mestayer is a member of Chauncey Olcott's company and came from Chicago for the trial.

His wife did not appear to oppose the suit. Witnesses testified to seeing her with Joe Totten, a vaudeville actor, but none of the evidence was incriminating.

Receiver for a Socialist Co-operative Con

INDIANAPOLIS, April 8 .- The Kokomo Cooperative Association, started by the So-cialists to exemplify their theories and run a general mercantile business on the profit-sharing plan, went into the hands of a receiver to-day. The association failed to meet its obligations to wholesalers. The Socialists said that it did no business be-cause of the high charges for goods.

PUBLICATIONS. THE LOVE STORY OF A MINE SUPERINTENDENT

A realistic story of life in a Colorade gold camp. estir with romance and exciting incident. The most picturesque and moving story of mining life since the earlier work of Bret Harte.

BLUE

By FRANK L. NASON, author of "To the End of the Trail," etc. "A novel of the Colorado mining district as rugged and as full of gold as any of the rich ore about which the drama of its action turns." -N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

GOOSE

BLOCKED SALOON BACK DOOR.

TROUBLE OVER A LITTLE PLOT OF ELM STREET GROUND.

High Board Fence That Kept Hoffman's Customers Away Has Gone-He Doesn's Know Who Did It-Owner Asks $6,000 for the Vacant Lot, 0 by 18 Feet.

Miss Mary Wallace, who lives at the Hotel Endicott, Eighth-first street and Columbus avenue, owns a vacant plot of ground 9 by 181/2 feet, at 191 Elm street. Hoffman owns the Marion Café, at 8 Marion street, which backs up against Miss Wal-

Some of Hoffman's patrons have found it convenient to reach his rear door by crossing Miss Wallace's land. Most of them were subway workmen who didn't care about meeting a foreman.

Then, according to Hoffman, the owner of the 9x18½ feet offered to sell or lease it to him. No agreement was reached and two months ago a twelve-foot fence was built on the ground blocking Hoffman's rear entrance. It was used by a bill post-built on the ground blocking Hoffman's rear entrance. It was used by a bill posting company.

Some one made an opening in the fence large enough to admit a man with a thirst. The next day the opening was boarded up. Openings appeared and disappeared until yesterday morning, when the fence itself was gone.

"It's just spite, that's all," said Hoffman last night "You see Miss Wallace found her little piece of ground was useful to me so she offered to sell it. First she wanted $3,800 and I offered $3,800. Then she raised to $4,000 and I offered $3,800. I went to $4,000 and it offered $3,800. I covered the $4,500 and then she wanted $6,000. I stopped at $4,500, and I offered $3,800 are in the she wanted $6,000. I stopped at $4,500, and I offered $12 a month, but she wouldn't agree.

"I don't know anything about the fence being cut down, but you know we had a bad storm last week and that might have had something to do with it. I stopped the boys from cuttin' it down two or three times, and said I didn't want to be a party to it."

One of Hoffman's patrons at the bar remarked. "I seen two Eyetalians smashing to it."

One of Hoffman's patrons at the bar remarked, "I seen two Eyetalians smashing it up last night for kindlin' wood."

John H. Ragan of 145 Nassau street, attorney for Miss Wallace, said that his client wants $6,000 for the property, and that she is simply renting it to the bill-board people until she can find a more profitable tenant or sell it. FOX TERRIER DEFENDS MASTER

Bites Policeman Who Arrests Holzman for Striking Recreant Wife.

While Policeman McCann of the Lee venue police court, Williamsburg, was in a house at 30 Walton street yesterday morning looking for August Holzman of 16 Thornton street, for whom he had a warrant for assaulting his wife, Annie Holzman, he was attacked by a fox terrier belonging to Holzman and bitten in the left leg. He knocked the dog senseless with his billy and arrested Holzman.

Holzman formerly had as a boarder Henry Brockman. The latter, it is alleged, was attentive to Mrs. Holzman and last week the husband drove him out. On Monday night Holzman returned from work and found that his wife was gone; also his furniture. He traced her to the Walton street house, where he found her and Brockman domiciled. During an argument with his wife Holzman, it was alleged, struck her. She obtained a warrant, but he disappeared. Yesterday morning Mrs. Holzman sent word that he was in her new home. Holzman was paroled until Tuesday. man, he was attacked by a fox terrier be-

CHICAGO, April 8.-The Illinois school for boys, the St. Charles Home, will have stanch backer in Jacob Riis. Business men who are interested in the institution men who are interested in the institution expressed themselves as pleased with Mr. Riis's announcement to Judge Tuthill and Henry E. Weaver that he would return to Chicago in the fall and work for the school. Mr. Riis spent yesterday at the John Worthy School talking to the boys and encouraging them in their work.

W. H. Hazzard Celebrates Soth Birthday William H. Hazzard, one of Brooklyn's best-known citizens, celebrated his eightieth birthday yesterday in his home at 211 Schermerhorn street. Mr. Hazzard was formerly president of the Brooklyn City Railroad Company, and a few years ago retired from the presidency of the Fulton Bank. He has been a resident of Brooklyn for more than sixty years.

The Weather.

The Weather.

There was a storm of moderate intensity central over West Virginia yesterday. This storm, although of weak rotary and progressive movement, was attended on its southern and southeastern quadrants by severe local thunderstorms and tornadoes from the Arkansas Valley east over Missispipi, Alabama and Tennessee.

Rain fell heavily in Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama and South Carolina, and moderately heavy rains spread east and northeast over the Ohio Valley the eastern Lake regions and the Middle Atlantic and New England States. West of the Ohio Valley the weather was fair.

the weather was fair.

There was a storm forming to the north of the Dakotas and another over the Gulf of California. There was but slight change of temperature in any of the districts; it was generally above the freezing point.

In this city rain fell throughout the day: wind generally fresh to brisk southeast; average humid-

The temperature yesterday as recorded by the official thermometer is shown in the annexed table:

1003, 1902, 1903, 1902, 1903, 1903, 1902, 1903, 1902, 1903 WARHINGTON PORECAST FOR TO-DAY AND TO WORROW For eastern Pennsylvania and eastern New York, fair to-day and to-morrow: fresh north win-is, becom-fair to-day and to-morrow: reason was a second ting cartable.

For New England, fair to-day, preceded by showers in eastern Maine; fair to-morrow: fresh west to northwest winds, becoming variable.

For the District of Columbia and Maryland, fair to-day and to-morrow; variable winds.

For Delaware and New Jersey, fair to-day and to-morrow: fresh west winds, becoming variable.

For western New York, fair and warmer to-day:

To Buffalo and Niagara Falls. Tickets coat but $2. Unusual attractiveness in equipment and acentry. Cafe cars: delightful meals as you order them.

Adv.

Are you up to her Easter standard?

in Spring weights and shades.

Hosiery—Spring fancies.

Waistcoats—50 sorts that we know will launder because they're already shrunk; $2.50 to $6.

ROGERS, PEET & COMPANY,

258 Broadway, opposite City Hall, and 7 and 9 Warren St. 842 Broadway, cor. 13th. W and 140 to 148 4th Ave. 1260 Broadway, cor. 52d, and 54 West S3d St.

MOTHER KILLED BY GAS.

POLITICS IN GRAND JURIES. Husband and Three Children Escape, the Former Untouched by Fluid.

Mrs. Carrie Moser, 41 years old, of 100 Leonard street, Jersey City, was killed and her three children narrowly escaped asphyxiation by illuminating gas early yesterday morning. Her daughter, Millie, 14 years old, awoke at 5:15 o'clock and found that old, awoke at 5:15 o'clock and found that gas was escaping. She tried unsuccessfully to arouse the others and called Mrs. Rose Heim, a neighbor, who helped her to open the windows.

Mrs. Moser was dead. Charles, 12 years old, and Lewis, 8 years old, were unconscious. They were revived by Drs. Weigand and Leuhne, who said last night that they would recover.

Charles Moser, who slept in a room apart from his wife, escaped.

It is believed that the older boy, who was the last to retire, accidentally left the cock partly turned on.

MUTINY IN DENVER JAIL. Police and Firemen Called Out and Prison-departments were called to the county jail to-day to quell a mutiny. Four prisoners armed with revolvers overpowered Guard Murphy and secured his keys. One shot was fired at Murphy, but he was not injured. Being unable to open the outer doors, the prisoners surrendered. It is not known how they obtained the weapons.

To Prison for Lafe for Child Murder. Rosie Quinn, a seventeen-year-old servant, who was employed at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, was convicted yesterday by a jury in the criminal branch of the Suprem Court of murder in the second degree. She will be sentenced on Tuesday to life imprisonment. On Nov. 26 last she threw her three-weeks-old illegitimate child into a lake in Central Park.

OBITUARY.

Ezra Prentice Treadwell, a well known artist and decorator, died yesterday in the Elberon Hotel in White Plains, N. Y. He Elberon Hotel in White Plains, N. Y. He was born in Albany, on March 0, 1848. He studied art in Paris, Germany and Switzerland. Returning to this country he settled in Albany, where he decorated many public buildings. He decorated many public buildings. He decorated many public buildings in Boston and Chicago. Some of the principal places in the East he has decorated are the Metropolitan Opera House, the Old Lyceum Theatre, Rector's, Georgian Court, the St. James Building, Washington Life Building, the American Surety Building and the residence of Senator Stephen B. Elkins, in Washington. He belonged to the well-known Treadwell family of Albany, He was a brother-in-law of John Boyd Thacher, former Mayor of Albany, and an uncle of Col. George Curtis Treadwell, military secretary to former Governors Black and Roosevelt. He was a member of many clubs, among them being the Manhattan Club, Larchmont Yacht Club and Lambert Lake Club. His body will be taken to Albany for burial.

clube, among them being the Mahattan Club. Larchmont Yacht Club and Lambert Lake Club. His body will be taken to Albany for burial.

Henry Van Brunt, well known as an architect and as the designer of the Electricity Building at the Chicago World's Fair, died yesterday at his home in Milton, Mass. He was born in Boston, Sept 5. 1832, and was the son of a Commodore in the United States Navy. He was graduated at Harvard in 1834 During the Civil War he served in the North Atlantic squadron. He followed his profession of architect in Boston for twenty years, and then went to Kansas City in 1887. Much of his early work was done on buildings for Harvard University. He designed Memorial Hall.

A cable despatch received at St. Louis from President Ramsey, of the Wabash Railroad Cempany, who is in Cairo, Egypt, reports the death of his daughter on Tuesday. Mr. Ramsey is expected to reach this city with the body on April 25. After making a record breaking trip of thirteen days from New York to Cairo, following news of his daughter illness, he arrived barely in time to see her alive.

J. B. Atherton, one of the prominent sugar planters and merchants in the Hawaiian Islands, is dead at Honolulu. He was compelled to give up business last November by illness. His son arrived in Honolulu from Boston a few hours too late to see his father alive. Mr. Atherton went to Hawaii April 1 of this year, when he was retired on a pension on account of old age, died at his home in Cleveland yesterday. He was born in Waltham, Mass. in September, 1822, and was in the railroad business all his life. Charles H. Allen, widely known as a violinist, died on Tuesday evening of heart trouble at his home in Boston, aged 65 years. He was born in York England, and becan his studies at Paris when a boy. He came to America in 1871. He leaves a widow who was Miss Eunice Humphrey, a noted singer. Dr. Guy Bryan Miller, who two years ago was house physician at 88. Luke's Heaphital, died on Tuesday in Paris, France, in his thirtyfirst year. Dr. Miller was a Neckwear-Spring colors in approved shapes.

Gloves—all accepted materials

PROTECTS CRIMINALS. In an address on "The District Attorney's

District Attorney, had this to say about the corruptibility of jurors:

When the prisoner is rich his efforts are directed toward the jury because he knows he cannot touch the prosecutors or the bench. I have seen cases where the moral evidence was complete that certain jurors were corrupted, and one has confessed to me.

There are men on Grand Juries in New York whose first object when on the jury is to protect the political party to which they belong, and when the District Attorney refuses to try certain cases before them the public clamors at the delay without knowing the facts.

One jury recently refused to issue a pre-to try certain cases before them the public clamors at the delay without knowing the facts.

One jury recently refused to issue a presentment because the person affected was a good political worker in the district of one of the jurors. Men are often acquitted of crimes by means which neither you nor I would think legitimate. The Grand Jury not infrequently stands between the criminal and the just penalty for his crime.

The District Attorney is confronted with the necessity of attacking police corruption which so clearly exists, but he finds it almost impossible to secure a conviction for bribery owing to the character of the witnesses.

Mr. Philbin reviewed the Bissert case and said that, although the decision of the lower court was reversed, it was not reversed because of the lack of evidence in the original conviction of the wardman. In speaking of the Herlihy case he said that it was known then, as it is known now, that there is hardly a precinct in the entire city where there are not violations of the law. In giving advice to the law students in the audience, Mr. Philbin told them not to try to gain professional prominence through politics nor to aspire to become attorneys for large corporations, since it meant the loss of independence.

handy a Harmon, dealers in gold and silver bullion at 32 Nassau street, is in the Tombs on a charge of grand larceny. Parker D. Handy complains that in December last Houston, who had a power of attorney, drew and cashed a check for $5,000 of the firm's money and fied. He went South, but returned recently.

HE METROSTYLE is a finger or guide connected with the "tempo lever" of the Pianola. To this finger is attached a pen.

The performer—an authority—plays upon the Pianola any classical or modern composition. As he plays he guides this pen on the unwinding music-roll in accordance with his interpretation of the piece he is rendering, and thus as he plays he marks upon the roll in red ink a line which, as it progresses, indicates in all its angles and curves exactly in expression the ritar-dando, the accelerando, or any of the various dynamic contrasts of music, just as he himself plays it. After the completion of this work on the roll the pen is removed, and any performer can use the finger or indicator following the red line that has been marked by the performer, and he will thereupon get an exact repetition of the performance as it was played by the authority.

The METROSTYLE

An addition to the Pianola by means of which it is possible to reproduce the exact interpretations of the great masters of the piano.

"The METROSTYLE is the most wonderful invention ever made in music."-MUSICAL COURIER.

We unhesitatingly state we believe that the Metrostyle is the most important and far-reaching improvement ever made in musical instruments, and that it rivals the Pianola itself.

Music for the Metrostyle will be interpreted by all the world's greatest musicians.

Selections have already been interpreted and marked by Maurice Moszkowski, I. J. Paderewski, Harold Bauer, and Emil Paur.

The first catalogue of Metrostyle music (now ready) contains interpretations by each of the above virtuosi, in addition to 150 compositions interpreted by an authoritative pianist.

"This is such a stupendous innovation on everything that has taken place in music so far that it sture the intelligence. It is so far-reaching that it overwhelms ideals. We are completely at the mercy of an entirely new thought in musical development. We now see plane-playing taken out of the realm of automatism and placed at one step ento the very highest rung of the ladder of individualism."

-MUSICAL COURIER, February 11, 1908.

The cost of the Metrostyle Pianola is $300.

The Metrostyle Pianola is on exhibition and for sale.

The AEOLIAN COMPANY, AEOLIAN HALL, 362 Fifth Ave.

Brooklyn Selling Agents......FREDERICK LOESER @ CO. DR. L. D. KENT'S TRIAL.

MR. PHILBIN SAYS IT OFTEN

He Tells a Columbia Audience That the Pirst Object of Some Grand Jurors Is to Help Men of Their Own Party -Petty Juries Corruptible, He Add

Office," delivered at Columbia University yesterday, Eugene A. Philbin, the ex-District Attorney, had this to say about Samuel'D. Houston, 54 years old, of Hyde Park, N. Y., formerly confidential man for Handy & Harmon, dealers in gold and silver

Of a Torturing Disfiguring Eczema by the Cuticura Remedies when all else failed.

"My baby, Owen Herbert Quirk, was afflicted from the age of six weeks with a loathsome running eczema, almost covering his face. I took him to Doctors —— and —— of Victoria Road, Aldershot, and he was treated months and has never had the slightest return of it. I am very grateful for the benefits derived from your remedies, and shall feel it a pleasure to make their value known. For corroboration of this statement you may refer any one to Mrs. Williams, 46 Michaels Road, Aldershot, or Mr. Gunstane, 40 Victoria Road, Aldershot, to whom we recommended the remedies for a skin humour which they also cured. You are at liberty to do what you like with this statement as I should like all to know of the value of the Cuticura Remedies."

WILLIAM HERBERT QUIRK.

No. 1 West End Cottages. Ruywood Road. N. Southampton.

CUTIOURA REMEDING are self throughout the civilized world. PRICES: Outeurs Resolvent, the per bottle (in the form of Chosolate Costed Fills, Sie per visit of 60), Cuticurs friesment, don per box and Culticura Same, Sie, ner tablet. Send for the great work, "Rumanre of the Riead, Skin and Reals, and Now to Oure Thom." British Depot, 37.58 Charterhouse Sie, London, E. C. Prench Depot, 3 Rus de la Paix, Paris. Australian Depot, R. Towns & On, Sydney. Potter Drug and Cham. Corp., Sets Proprietors, Boston, U. S. J.

Miss Eva Dingle, Between Sobs, Tells How Kent Wrecked Her Sister's Life.

ROCHESTER, April 8.—A pathetic scene was witnessed at the trial of Dr. Leland Dorr Kent for manslaughter in causing the death of Ethel B. Dingle, a nurse connected with Riverside Hospital in Buffalo, when Eva Dingle, sister of Ethel, took the stand this afternoon and between her sobs told how Kent had wrecked the life of her sister. She said she found out that Kent went to Toronto with Ethel and she told him he had a wife and child and had no right to be with her sister. She told him she would expose him, and he replied: "Give me twenty-four hours and I will end it all."

That night the couple took the ill-fated trip to Rochester.

This afternoon Dr. George H. Grant, whose name figures in the blood-stained letters found in room No. 147, walked into the courtroom in response to a subpœna issued by the people. Dr. Grant was engaged to marry Miss Dingle.

The mystery of the razor was not revealed by the witnesses to-day, who differ as to the persons who held it when the room was entered. James McCarthy, the bell boy who broke down the door of No. 147, testified that he remembered hearing "Help" cried out by some one in No. 147 as he joined witness O'Connor in the hallway. "Help! Help! Send Help!" Come quick!" the witness said he heard again after he looked over the transom. "When we broke into the room," he said, "I saw a razor was in her left hand. There was no blood on her hand or arm." He added that he did not notice any wound in her throat, although he observed the blood on the bed and floor.

The defence argues that if the witness failed to see the death wound, he could not be expected to know anything about blood on the hand.

The witness volunteered this statement. 147, testified that he remembered hear-be expected to know anything about blood on the hand.

The witness volunteered this statement:
"I think there was blood on Kent's collar and necktie. The collar and necktie were on a stand, I believe."

This causes speculation as to whether Kent received the wound in his neck while wearing his collar and necktie, or whether he fumbled them with bloody fingers while hunting for his medicine case.

This afternoon McCarthy said that O'Connor was mistaken when he attributed to him the remark: "He has a razor in his hand." What he did say, witness testified, was "she has a razor in her hand." "Then somebody said." continued the witness, "it had better he taken away from here, as she might get it and finish the job."

by them for three months, but got much worse and was a sickening sight to look at. I saw an adver-tisement of the Cuticara Remedies.

and got the Soap, Ointment and

"We noticed as improvement at once, and within a fortnight the running had ceased and the scales were nearly all dried of, and in a mouth his face was per-fectly clear, not a spot left. I have enclosed photograph of him when he was thritten months old. He is now two years and four

He is now two years and four months and has never had the

WILLIAM HERBERT QUIRK.

CONQUERING OF KATE

WANTED GOSSIPS ENJOINED.

Cleveland Man Goes to the Police for su

Injunction and Gets Advice

64 Mead avenue, who has not been in the 64 Mead avenue, who has not been in the country long, applied to the police to-day for an injunction against goesips in his neighborhood. Assistant Prosecutor Lilly told Yonac that he couldn't get an injunction, neither could he have the gossipers arrested. Lilly said:

"Punch their heads, if they don't leave you alone."

The gossips, in a spirit of fun and to annoy Mrs. Yonac, had circulated a story to the effect that Yonac had two wives.

Ready April 15th.

by

CLEVELAND, April 8 .- James Youac of

Ogubleday, Page & Co., " Valon Se H

Keidansky

HAS SOMETHING TO SAY FOR EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR, AND

FOR ALL SEASONS. To-day He Says:-

" Epigrams are always hateful to those who cannot make a point in a volume."

"Oh, the flesh-pots of Egypt, even the Vegetarian cannot forget them." "Perfection is a long and laborious process of becoming."

THE DISCOURSES OF KEIDANSKY can be obtained from all booksellers for $1.25, or by mail from the. Publishers for $1.85.

Scott-Thaw Co., 542 5th Av., M.Y.